2014 Retirement Plan Contribution Limits

The Internal Revenue Service announced the following cost-of-living adjustments applicable to dollar limitations for pension plans for tax year 2014:

- If you are under age 50 with less than 15 years of service, your annual maximum is $17,500.

- If you are under age 50 with 15 years or more of service, your annual maximum may be $20,500. You have to meet IRS requirements to be eligible.

- If you are over age 50 with less than 15 years of service, your annual maximum is $23,000.

- If you are over age 50 with 15 years or more of service, your annual maximum may be $26,000. You have to meet IRS requirements to be eligible.

Keep in mind the double-tax benefit of 403(b) contributions. First, all of your contributions go into the plan on a pre-tax basis (federal and most states) so your current tax bill will be reduced. Second, all plan accumulations grow tax deferred so any investment earnings are not eroded by current income taxes.

If you have questions about your 403(b) tax-deferral limits, you can visit the TIAA website at www.tiaa-cref.org/wilkes or call 1-800-842-2273.
