Wilkes University WebVPN Installation Guide
Cisco Anyconnect WebVPN client installation for Mac Operating systems.

1. Point a web browser to https://webvpn.wilkes.edu
   This must be https and not http.
2. You will get a login Page as show below. Select a group and provide the correct login credentials. Username and password. This will be your Wilkes University Login.

i.e. .....Students will use the Student group.

3. Installation will start.
4. Downloading client to local machine.
5. You will have to give local login credentials to allow the cisco Anyconnect installer to install to your local machine.
6. Continue Installation
7. Installation Complete.
8. You can verify that the Cisco Anyconnect client is established by clicking on the “yellow” lock on the bottom right.
9. You will only need to install the Cisco Anyconnect client once. You will not have to visit the web site https://webvpn.wilkes.edu each time. You can visit the website https://webvpn.wilkes.edu if you wish or you need to reinstall the Cisco Anyconnect Vpn Client. You can be launch the Cisco Anyconnect client from your local machine. To do so click on the Finder Icon.

10. Then click Cisco Folder
11. Then click Cisco Anyconnect VPN Client
12. Then select Group and provide credentials to login. Credentials will be Wilkes University Login credentials.
13. Please contact the help desk at servicenow.wilkes.edu or at 408-4357 or 1-866-1462 if you need further assistance.