4. Executive Summary of Proposal.
Briefly summarize this proposal. The breadth and depth of this executive summary should reflect the complexity and significance of the proposal. Include an overview of the proposal, background and reasoning behind the proposal and a description of how the proposal relates to the mission and strategic long-range plan of the unit and/or university. For incidental changes a one or two sentence explanation is adequate.

The current name of EDIM 515 is BYOD: Mobile Learning in Education. It is felt that the new name, BYOD: Mobile Devices for Teaching and Learning, presents to prospective students a much clearer picture as to the content present in the course.

This proposed name clearly states that while the focus of the course is on mobile devices, a more important aspect of the course is now represented with this new name that being the teaching and learning process. This new name implies starting with the teacher who will learn about these mobile devices and then shifts focus to the learners where teachers will employ these tools for an impact on student achievement.

5. Other specific information. (Not applicable for incidental changes.)

What other programs, if any, will be affected by this proposal? Describe what resources are available for this proposal. Are they adequate? What would be the effect on the curriculum of all potentially affected programs if this proposal were adopted? Include any potential effects to the curriculum of current programs, departments and courses.

The name change for this course will not have an impact on the Instructional Media program or other programs offered at Wilkes.

6. Program Outline. (Not applicable for incidental changes).
A semester-by-semester program outline, as it would appear in the bulletin for a new program or any modified program with all changes clearly indicated.
